Oscar Winner

MIYOSHI UMEKI became the first Japanese actress to win an Oscar for her supporting role in Warner Brothers' Sayonara at the Academy Awards presentation last Wednesday. The selection of the young Japanese beauty as best supporting actress was one of the major surprises in academy history. She had been chosen by none of the predictors. According to reports, she seemed as surprised as anyone and said, "I wish someone would help me —I didn't expect to win so I have nothing in mind."

Miss Umeki, dressed in a kimono, said she wished only to "stay in your wonderful country." Her only regret, she said, was that her aged mother in Japan was not with her. Backstage, she hugged her Oscar unbelievingly and sighed, "I hope it won't be gone tomorrow." Although she didn't sing in her movie debut, Miyoshi (Nancy) Umeki had gained considerable reknown as a singer in Los Angeles night clubs and on the Arthur Godfrey Show. She has recorded the title song of Sayonara.

Buy More From Japan, Pastor Says; Canada's Prices Too High

SARNIA, Ont.—Canada should buy more goods from Japan, Rev. George W. Goth of London, Ont., told the Canadian Club last week.

Rev. Goth who visited Japan during two world tours in the last decade, said, "The Japanese are buying twice as much from us as we are from them. This is not fair."

If Japan is to become a progressive country, it must be assisted economically, and this can be done, in part, by buying more goods made in Japan, he said.

This would help give Japan more dollars to buy Canadian goods.

"And," he said, "we can't make things as well as they can. They make better watches and better cameras than our own—as good as they can in Germany."

Many Japanese products, he said, are manufactured as a "labor of love," and are produced with a feeling of craftsmanship.

"Some people say Japanese labor is cheap. Well, I sometimes think ours is too high. Canada is pricing itself out of the world market.

"I don't want to be tagged with any political label, but I don't believe in helping out little groups around the country that want tariffs."

"They should learn to sink or swim," Rev. Goth added.

He is the minister of Metropolitan Church in London and has gained a wide reputation for his open-minded views on religion and the world.

Club Reps Urged to Attend Centre Meeting

On Tuesday, April 8, representatives of the various JC organizations will meet at 415 Spadina to discuss the hypothetical sketch and model of the proposed Toronto Japanese Canadian Community Centre.

Questionnaires have been sent to the responsible persons of each group to help form a maintenance budget. The Committee for the Centre requests that these questionnaires be returned before the meeting if possible.

At a Committee meeting held last Tuesday, the constitution and organization committee headed by Frank Ohtake presented a draft of the proposed constitution. Discussion and alterations were made, and the subcommittee was instructed to legalize the constitution.

With regard to the donation of Japanese cherry-trees to the city of Toronto, a project being handled by the Centre Committee, it was decided that letters will be sent to Consul M. Endo of Toronto, former Consul K. Yoshida of Tokyo, and Mr. K. Tsuyuki of Tokyo, requesting that they make an investigation and negotiate with the Parks Board of Metropolitan Tokyo in selection of trees and transportation.

In attendance at the March 25 meeting were chairman Bob Kadoguchi, Frank Ohtake, Koei Mitsui, Tosh Moriyama, John Nakashima, Gloria Sato, Denise Nishimura, J. Sunohara, C. Furukawa, S. Kamino, Y. Kanda, T. Kameoka, T. Kadonaga, T. Ide, S. Nakagawa, R. Tsuji, Y. Iwasaki, and T. Umezuki.

ISSEI-DOM . . . by t.-u.

TJCCA—Firm Roots and Sturdy Trunks. . .

The Toronto JCCA Chapter has been inactive and showing signs of weakness since late last year. The chief reason might be the lack of personnel, as well as the lack of an attractive program.

Every conscientious JCCA mind is probably worrying about this situation. For this reason, the Toronto Chapter has called a special joint meeting with the National Chapter and the TJCCA Isseibu this Monday, March 31, 8 p.m., at 415 Spadina to discuss the revitalization of this important Chapter. The notice of the meeting says in part:

"Your efforts and your support have resulted in a strong active National Headquarters in Toronto. But what of the Local and Provincial organizations? To have and maintain a healthy National organization, we must have firm roots and sturdy trunks. Let us see what can be done."

The coming meeting was called as a result of the NJCCA executive meeting held March 19.

I would like to urge not only the executive members, but everybody who has in mind the importance of the JCCA, to attend the meeting and assist toward the building of a stronger local chapter.

The question was taken up at the general meeting of the Isseibu last month which resulted in the appointment of a special Issei committee to study the matter of structure and functions of all levels of the JCCA.

The first meeting of the special committee was held on March 26, chiefly to discuss temporary measures for Monday's meeting. They are in favor of adopting the membership system of the JCCA. It was also suggested that a closer relationship be established among the National, Provincial and Local chapters, and even the Community Centre Committee should work more closely, to get better results.

Canadian Tariff Board to Study Cotton Imports; Japan Threatens to Trade Elsewhere

OTTAWA.—The Tariff Board launched a public study on March 26, expected to last more than three weeks, to determine whether increased protection is needed by Canada's cotton textile industry.

In a bulky, 200-page submission to the Board opening the study hearings, the Primary Textiles Institute said its share of the domestic market is being seriously curtailed by mounting imports.

The industry claims that unless some action is taken to reduce imports from the U.S., the United Kingdom, Western Europe, Japan and India, a lot of Canadian textile workers may be thrown out of jobs.

On the second day of the hearings, Japanese exporters warned that if Canada increases protection of domestic industries, Japan will be forced to look elsewhere for wheat, lumber and minerals.

In a brief to the Tariff Board, the Japanese cotton textile industry said Canada sells the Asian country more than twice as much as it buys from it. "Japan prefers to trade with Canada," the brief said. "But if she is unable to sell to Canada, she will be forced to look . . . to countries that are willing to buy her products in order that they may sell to Japan."

Japan's voluntary-quota system, established in 1956 to control cotton goods exported to Canada, has been successful, Tsurunosuke Ijima of the Toronto Japan Trade Centre said last week.

"In addition to observing this policy of self-restraint, Japanese textile producers have tended to concentrate on higher quality goods and modernization of their merchandising methods for the benefit of merchants and consumers", Mr. Ijima said.

Canadian imports of cotton textile fabrics from Japan have been held to less than three percent of total Canadian consumption during 1957.

"The voluntary-quota control system was set up by the Japan Cotton Textile Exporters' Association and the Japan Textile Products Exporters' Association to avoid creating hardship in the Canadian textile industry", Mr. Ijima noted.

Amateur Film Contest To Be Held in Tokyo

OTTAWA.—The First International Film Contest is to be held in Tokyo in October under the joint sponsorship of the Society for International Cultural Relations and the Amateur Cine Friends Circle of Japan. The purpose of this project is to promote cultural exchange and goodwill among the peoples of the world.

To ensure the success of the contest, the sponsors are soliciting the participation of amateur cameramen from all parts of the world. The deadline for entry is July 31. Regulations and entry forms are available at the Embassy of Japan, 701 Metcalfe Building, Ottawa, Ont.

M. SITARR REPLIES

Well, Why Don't They ???

Social clubs are what the name implies . . . social. They thrive because they help satisfy social needs. Now take the JCCA where the primary object is not social. You find that it is very difficult to get Niseis to be active in it. Most Niseis do not want to take that long streetcar ride downtown to attend an executive meeting but would rather go where there's music, dancing and socialization. To be active in the JCCA you have to be somewhat dedicated.

Frankly it is difficult to see how any objections can be made against young people joining church activities and eventually finding their spouse within the church group. Probably this is preferred to locating a spouse in the local beer joint. The church should be happy that the young people are turning out. Once they are there, they can promote the religious life of the young people. But the main thing is to get the Nisei there first, for it is very difficult, if not impossible to influence those who do not attend.

As for the question, "Why don't these Nisei want to marry outside their group?" Probably through early training and psychological conditioning they prefer their own group. They may also feel they cannot cope with the social pressure which comes with nonconformity like intermarriage. Some may be pressured by their parents. Others set their mate goals so high that they would rather remain unmarried than lower their standards. Files of psychologists are bulging with case histories of unmarried women who have confessed that they could have married when younger, but somehow the men did not seem good enough. Now late in the thirties and futile forties they wish they had been more practical. If you question these people, they may give you many answers but many other reasons are not even up to consciousness.

As for the question, "Why can't they?"—there are also many reasons. The most obvious being that they have to find persons willing to marry them. This may be a very difficult task. Where would they look? Would these people wait for some fortuitous accident to occur like in the movies? Unfortunately marriages are not made in heaven.

High schools are considered to be the country's largest matrimonial agencies with colleges and universities coming next. A Nisei going through this agency may or may not pair off with a hakujin . . . most likely not. After school days when the Nisei may be more receptive, the chances of meeting and pairing off with a hakujin at the place of employment or within the neighborhood are pretty slim. This is because of the obvious reason that many hakujin have paired off by this time. If not, they are seeking their ideal image, which naturally does not fit the Nisei.

If a Nisei wants to marry a Catholic French-speaking college graduate it would be foolish to stick around the beet fields of Alberta. The Nisei must go where the chances of meeting such a person are good. After locating such a person there is the difficult job of courtship. There is also a psychological and sociological barrier which requires considerable amount of emotional maturity, ego strength asd stability to overcome. People who are naive and weak who enter into intermarriage usually do not have the strength nor the skill to make a go of it.

Probably every NC reader knows of a Nisei who is pushing thirty or has pushed it but still is unmarried. It might even be a brother or a sister. These Niseis are not slobs or repugnant but responsible people with good jobs, honest and pleasant. They are not unhappy but they need a feeling of being wanted, companionship and friendship too. Unfortunately some of these Niseis are too timid in their efforts to seek satisfaction of these needs. Social clubs and other community activities should be provided to make it easier for these people to satisfy some of the basic needs.

Let's not condemn the Social Clubs for hindering assimilation, instead join one and enjoy it; after all, looking for a prospective spouse is good wholesome fun. If the shoe fits, wear it; refuse—then go barefooted.

'What Good is a BA?'

VANCOUVER.—A panel of four leading UBC professors agree that a BA degree is a platform to a fuller life and not a meal ticket.

They were answering the question "What Good Is A BA?" to an audience of 600 at Georgia Auditorium recently. Dean Geoffrey C. Andrew, deputy to the UBC president, summed it up:

"Anyone who wants to seek an education first should forget about earning a living and special vocations. Let him follow his curiosity and concentrate on the things he likes doing and can do. The rest will follow."

Properly used, the BA course could improve a man's capacity for critical examination, teach him not just the how of life, but the why of life, give him a sense of moral and aesthetic well-being and safety of man will depend less on our success in exploring outer space than our wisdom in using the space in which we live.

Chatham Slants

By JACK NISHIZAKI

CHATHAM, Ont. — Kiwanis Midgets were the last of the Chatham minor teams to fall to the wayside in the OMHA play-offs. Previously, Branch 28 Bantams and the Rotary Pioneer Juveniles were eliminated in the second game of the play-offs by London and Tillsonburg respectively.

The Midgets, despite gaining a 7-7 tie with Owen Sound Crescents in the second meeting here last Saturday, lost the two-game total goals, 19-12.

Chatham lost the opener in Owen Sound the week before.

Owen Sound now enters the Ontario finals against the winner of the Toronto-Hamilton set.

Also in the hockey news is, Mel Wakabayashi, named as the leading scorer in the Kiwanis Midget league, in the final statistics released by the league statistician, Earl Killby, last week.

Mel, a former member of the OBA champions Moose Midgets last season finished the 10-game regular season with six goals and eight assists for a 14 point total. He has had offers from the Guelph and Weston teams for next years Junior B games.

Nice going to Charles Okubo, who came runner-up in the local Kent five-pin tournament finishing twenty-games with an average of 248 plus.

Still in the bowling news, local bowlers will journey to neighboring London for the annual tournament today.

Local softball fans can again support their favourite Nisei team when they participate with six other teams in the coming softball league this summer.

「偶然お嬢さんがほかの目的で靜岡に來て、恰度いい機會だから工場を見學したいといわれた、そういうことにしておきますからそのつもりで」

「どうとも御随意に」

乃夫子は上の空で云いながら、どことなく新開地めいた感じの街の風景を、タクシィの窓から眺めていた粗末な家のたてこんだ通りになって、やがてそこを抜けると、工場地帶へ入って行った。

「あれです、わが社の靜岡工場は」

酒井がゆびさした突當りに、コンクリートの案外しようしやな門が近づいて來た。車止めの鐵鎖が門柱へ渡され、守衛がいぶかしそうにこっちを見ていた。

學　窓　の　友

工場長は不在で、事務所の應接へ出て來たのは、人事課長と係長だった。二人とも乃夫子を社長令嬢と聞くと、顔色を變えないばかりにして驚き、汽車の時間さえ聞いていれば、驛まで出迎えたのになどと恐縮するのだった。

「ところで、事件はどんな具合ですか」

酒井は餘計なことを云わずに、本題を切り出した。

課長は係長と顔を見合せて返事をしぶった。社長令嬢の前では迂濶（うかつ）なことを云えないと警戒するらしく見えた。

「お嬢さんは個人の資格で工場見學に來ただけですから、別に氣にされなくてもいいんですよ。何ならお嬢さんに席をはずしてもらいましょうか」

酒井は相手の緊張を解くように笑いながら云って、乃夫子をかえり見た。

「大丈夫よ、あたくし聞いていないから」

乃夫子は席を立たなかった。

「いえ、お聞かせして困るような事態はまだ起っておりません。わざわざ本社へ御報告するほどの問題じゃなかったんです。今のところ單なる女工たちの間のいざこざでして……」

課長はあわててそう説明した。

「昨日の話では、下手をするとサボタージュにはいる形勢があると云うことでしたが、その後の様子は？」

酒井は容しゃなく突込んだ。

「一時は不穏の空氣もありましたが、大体が一人の女工が煽動して起ったことで昂奮がさめると、ほかの連中は反省している様です」

「その煽動した女工と云うのは、何か思想的傾向でも持っている女ですか」

「さア、そういうことはないようです。信州から來ている五理じゅん子と云う者で、今までは別に變ったところはなかったんです。ただ高校出身ですから、ほかの者より幾分知識程度は高いですがね。要するに役付女工に對する單純な反感が動機なんで、そう深いものはないと思うんです」

課長がそこまで云った時、紺の職服を着た男が、ノッソリ戸口をはいって來た。

木綿製品 日本が關税引上に警告

今後カナダから輸入できないとブリーフ提出

【既報】オタワ關税局では去る二十六日からオタワでカナダ國内木綿業者から『國産品保護のため輸入品に對する關税を引上げて貰いたい、さもなければ國内業者は廢業し、失業者を出すことになろう』と、輸入チキスタイルに對する關税引上げ要求のブリーフを公聽會でよみあげた。國内業者が験のうえのコフとしている國は英國と日本のほか米國インド、ヨーロッパ諸國であり、とくに日本に對して徹底である。そこで日本業者代表がオタワを訪れ、關税ヒヤリングに對し『もしカナダが國内業者保護と稱して關税を引上げることになれば、日本は小麥、木材および鑛物などをほかの國から買わねばならなくなろう』と警告した次の如きブリーフを提出して、關税引上に反對している。

カナダは東洋國から輸入する二倍も輸出している日本はカナダと交易することを望むが、もしカナダに輸出することがむつかしくなれば、日本品を喜んで買ってくれ、その代り日本に買込みたいと希望する國と貿易しなければならなくなる。そのいずれかの決定は日本にあるのでなく、カナダにあるのである。

心配は不要

右ブリーフについてツレード・センターの伊島所長は『カナダ市場に於る日本物テキスタイルは全体の二・五パーセント占めるだけでしかも輸出量は規制されているのだから、なにも市場をこわすという心配は一つもないという點を強く強調している』と語った。

ブラジルへの日本移民 不適格者が二、三割も

【東京時事通信】東北の一寒村から志を立てて單身ブラジルに移住、四十五年の移民生活で資產五億圓、年收二億圓の地位を築きあげた移民成功者の一人が二十五日羽田着の日航機で歸ってきた。この人はサンパウロにある南米銀行の副頭取安瀬辰次氏(六五)だが、家族とともに宿舍の第一ホテルに落着いた。同氏は『戰後の移民は質が惡く、二、三割の不適格者が混っているので、現地の雇用主間でも問題になっていた。私は近く外務、農林、建設各省を回って實情を訴え、今後の移住者選考について強く反省を求めたい』と語った。

中共の國旗掲揚を日本は認めない

【東京時事通信】岸首相は今週の衆院豫算委で次の通り述べた。

△日中貿易問題―中共における國家見本市などではこれまでも日本の國旗が掲揚されており、中共もこのような場合には日本國内で國旗を掲げている。さきに中共との間に結ばれた民間協定では相互に國旗掲揚の權利を認めているが、獨立國として認めていない國に對して國旗掲揚を認めるわけにはゆかない。また日中貿易問題に關して米國からけん制を受けた事實はない。中共との貿易問題に關連して國府から抗議を受けたのは事實だが、誠意をもって日本政府の意志を説明、國府に對し理解してもらうよう今後も努力を續ける。

ト市第二地下鐵着工へ

△トロントの第二の地下鐵の工費捻出案についてメトロ・トロントとトロント市營電車委員會との間に折衝が行われていたが、今週になってやっと解決、メトロ市會側が総工費八千万弗のうち五五パーセントを負擔し、市電側では四五パーセントを受け持つということで話がきまり、まず市内の南北を貫くメーン・ストリートであるユニバーセテイ街の工事を今年十月から開始する段取りとなった。このストリートの工事完成は一九六一年まで、ブロワ街とダンフォース街の地下鐵完成は一九六三年頃とみなされているが、スチールが不足すれば完成はおくれるわけである。

來る四月一日から有効化す

【エドモントン發】アルバータ州では四月一日から新病院保險法を實施する。この新ホスピタル・インシュアランスによって今まで實施されていた病院における出產費の政府負擔がなくなり四月から產婦は准保險費として一日二弗、看護婦一日に一弗づつチャージされ、このレートは三十日間までそれ以後一日につき二倍となる、

△新病院保險法によると准保險料金として一日一弗五十仙ないし二弗支拂うことになっており、全州民に適用されるものである。從前の病院保險では一年十二弗ないし十四弗支拂っていたものであり、ガン診察、最初の七日間）、ポリオ患者のほか老年ペンションをうけている人のリュマチス患者の診察は無料となる。この新計畫は百病院に當てられるもので、政府と患者が双方で病院費を負擔する。

はなし

△泣くも笑うも今日かぎりの文句通り、月曜日には八三六名の候補者中、二六五名だけが當選して五月に開かれる議定の國議會にオタワに乗り込む。素人眼にみて、一番面白い選擧結果はビーシー州。社信黨の人氣が下り坂なのでシーシーエフと保守黨が伸び、自由黨は議會解散前より二名を増す見込みだといっているがどんなものか。

Recession and Discrimination

By KANGO KUNITSUGU in Crossroads, Los Angeles

RECESSION and discrimination. Neither is the other's cause, but the sad truth is that the two in combination tend to bring out the worst in each other. Recessions always hurt the minorities first, because they are bunched in the lower rung of the economic ladder in the unskilled labor classification where they are easily replaced. They are, in the classic phrase, "last hired, first fired."

Discrimination intensifies the hurts caused by recession. Minorities are always easy targets as scapegoats in a situation like a recession which has no clear and definite cause. At one and the same time, minorities are often accused of being a burden on society by cluttering up the welfare rolls and of "glutting the market" with cheap labor.

The volatile duo is beginning to command more attention today. Although all of us hope that the situation will not get any more serious, most of us will agree that we are in the midst of a recession today, the degree of severity and which way it'll swing being anybody's guess.

Now is the time that we need a Fair Employment Practices law to back up the lip service that is all too glibly paid to "equal opportunities in employment and advancement, regardless of color or creed."

Dr. Judd Marmor, clinical professor of psychiatry at UCLA, recently spoke on the subject of "Psychology of Prejudice," and he stated that "part of the anatomy of prejudice is in the degree of competition or threat of competition the person or group presents to the prejudiced person.

"A serious recession," he explained, "might well heighten problems of prejudice, individually and nationally, because of an increased competition for jobs and security."

In this respect, he also stated that prejudice toward certain groups apparently comes in waves. The Japanese got theirs during the war, for instance, although in this case, I believe Dr. Marmor is simplifying the problem a great deal, because prejudice against the Japanese was a continuing force on the West Coast from the early days of this century until the end of World War II. Concerning the Japanese, too, Dr. Marmor also believes that the ending of general prejudice toward them was perhaps the swiftest in history.

The Nisei have achieved notable advances since the end of World War II in the field of employment; however, let me puncture here a belief that has been growing in too many Nisei minds as to the reasons for these advances. I have heard many Nisei state that it was because of the high educational standards and the general capabilities of the Nisei (including the fact that he is generally considered to be clean and conscientious) that brought about the "Open Sesame" to the doors of better job opportunities.

This is nothing more than fuzzy thinking. The job opportunities opened up because the public's attitude toward Nisei underwent a change after the war. Perhaps our victory over Japan acted as a psychological cathartic for the American people—that is, by patently "proving" that we were stronger by winning the war, the American public began to feel a cavalier responsibility toward the vanquished. Then, too, the era of general prosperity following the war was another major factor in the better jobs the Nisei got.

Of course, good education, conscientiousness and cleanliness made the acceptance of the Nisei easier in the new jobs opened up to them, but these factors, commendable though they might be, were not the major reasons for the Nisei having more and better job opportunities.

Acceptance is a sweet thing, and it is easy to believe and to want to believe that the millenium has arrived for the Nisei in the employment field. It is only human to want to keep the beautiful picture intact and to ignore and disregard anything that might crop up to mar the picture. But the state of the nation's economy and its interplay with prejudice is a fluctuating thing which swings and sways with the times. Perhaps it is a little premature to state that the Nisei have "arrived" in the area of employment. The jury, I feel, is still out on this point, and until it can satisfactorily meet the test of hard times, we cannot draw any permanent conclusions.

But our achievements are on shaky ground indeed if we have the attitude toward Fair Employment Practices, spelled out in laws, that can be described in the words of one knucklehead:

"Why are you guys beating your brains out for FEPC. Look at the Nisei, we've never had it better. Why do you want to rock the boat?"

Far from rocking the boat, those who believe in FEPC feel that the boat could use the steadying influence of the ballast FEPC can provide in case that little black cloud on the horizon turns out to be something more than a mere breathing spell in the nation's economy.

Works For Centennial

KAMLOOPS, B.C.—Dr. E. C. Banno and Peter Wing are heading the Ethnic Groups and Citizenship subcommittee of the Kamloops Centennial Committee program. The hard-working committee has been meeting regularly since November, 1956, in planning ten days of celebration from June 26 to July 5, and also finalizing plans on the construction of Riverside Park swimming pool, a permanent project to mark the Centennial Fair.

GUEST EDITORIAL:

SHOULD HAVE MORE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

"Though a man be wise, it is no shame for him to live and learn"—a worthy thought applicable in Sophocles' era, to the present and always. Regardless of how wise we may consider ourselves to be, there is always unused storeroom for knowledge. Knowledge is boundless, and though one's capacity is limited, this should not stop us since who among us can claim to be approaching saturation?

One wonders, then, why educational programs that might be undertaken by any organization, such as the JCCA, is as easy to sell to the public as it is to sell a refrigerator to the Eskimos. The essay contest held in the past years, for instance, attracted only a very few. No attempt has been made to sponsor any debates, discussions and the like because of lack of interest and support shown in the past. Much can be derived from such programs. It may help in providing better understanding of another's point of view and thereby give a broader outlook. It will provide development of oratorical power, to formulate one's own opinions, and express them. An inspirational spark flickered in this inert atmosphere last winter when a few formed a discussion group (in Winnipeg). Unfortunately, this spark failed to ignite the imagination of the majority and the ember died with the advent of summer.

If no further attempt is made to undertake any educational programs, so that we may understand and appreciate each other's point of view, to discuss problems intelligently in our community level, how can we expect to have understanding and peaceful coexistence in the world level?

Just as physical hunger, whether for food or for exercise must be satisfied, so must we provide food for the thought, else our minds will be mired in a pool of stagnation. Perhaps one feels that reading the daily paper (especially the comics), watching TV, reading an occasional pocketbook, or indulging in idle gossip is sufficient for one's needs.

Acquiring knowledge is one thing; it is the intelligent use and application of knowledge that matters. That is wisdom. For complete harmony in our midst, a little sprinkling of wisdom occasionally would be a boon.

the jazz scene

By HOP

WHAT'S DOING: Following a successful opening last Saturday, Dave Caplan's Concert in Jazz will resume tonight at 9 p.m. in the St. Regis Hotel with Ross Culley on trombone, Norm Amadio, piano, Ernie Osadchuk, bass, and Mickey Shannon drums. . . . Gene Krupa's Quartet winds up a two-week stint at the Colonial tonight. Obviously on an off-and-on jazz policy, the Colonial will have Trump Davidson's group during the abbreviated pre-Easter week. They will possibly follow this up with a play called "The Drunkard" during the month of April. . . . The Town Tavern will also bring in local talent for the short week with Hagood Hardy on vibes, Norm Amadio, Ernie Osadchuk, and Ron Rully on drums. . . . The Canadian All-Stars with Moe Koffman are filling out the week at the Town as a result of Jo Jones' walkout last Thursday night. It seems that drummer Jones' working shoes, an ancient (20 year old) pair of beat-up oxfords to which he attaches great sentimental value, were swiped from the club closet, and he refused to go on without them. The two Bryant brothers, Ray on piano and Tommy on bass, played a couple of numbers just before the Trio, and many of the patrons, walked out of the Town.

JUST NOTES: Duke Ellington has completed the score for his projected Broadway musical, "Mine Boy", and is holding auditions at New York's Hotel Astor. . . . For those of you who have been lucky enough to obtain a copy of "The Many Sides of Pat Suzuki" which has not yet been released in Canada, there are some misleading reports that Pat is a find of Bing Crosby. To set the record straight, it was Norm Bobrow of the Colony Club in Seattle who gave her the break to send her on her way to the top.
